Emily Randall is the CEO & Founder of Bare Cove Technology. BCT is an award-winning IT and cybersecurity company, providing IT infrastructure, security & software solutions to asset managers across Asia and the UK. Emily is an industry veteran with extensive experience developing and growing buy side-focused technology companies across the US & Asia Pacific. Prior to starting BCT, Emily was MD and Head of Asia Pacific for Edge Technology Group, COO at Messer Financial Software, and held a variety of leadership and operational roles at Eze Software Group.

As guardians of significant pools of assets, often with limited data security infrastructure, both Hedge Funds and Family Offices are major targets for cyber-criminals. Join us to hear Emily's insights into:

- The urgency of increasing data security
- Phishing, Vishing & Smishing
- Practical steps to protecting personal data
- Preparing for an incident response
