Kiki Wong is a forensic expert who previously worked at New Scotland Yard, London, before returning to Hong Kong in 2010. In 2012, she led the forensic team in one of the highest profile forgery cases in Asia where over US$10 billion was challenged. Kiki is a Director at The Silent Company and the Head of Forensics at The Forensics Company. She is also a non-verbal communication specialist who trains how to upgrade communication skills to create better connections without saying a word.

Join this session to see and hear Kiki's insights into:

- Non-verbal Communication Skills - body language, micro expressions, voice tonality, non-verbal intelligence ...
- Applications - leadership & management, sales & negotiation, interviews & recruitment, client facing, public speaking, lie detection, social interactions ...

This session will be run on Zoom.
